1. Match each phrase from the story with an image.

   1. Ho! Ho! It’s a grand thing to be mad! to be peeped at like a wild lion through the iron bars – to gnash one’s teeth and howl, through the long still night

   !A

   2. I knew they were telling each other of the doomed madman; and I slunk away again to mope in solitude

   !B

   3. They screamed it into my head till the room rang with it, that in one generation before him the madness slumbered, but that his grandfather had lived for years with his hands fettered to the ground to prevent his tearing himself to pieces.

   !C

   4. I should have known that the girl would rather have been placed, stiff and cold in a dull leaden coffin, than borne an envied bride to my rich, glittering house.

   !D

   5. That figure never moves; it never frowns and mouths as others do, that fill this place sometimes; but it is much more dreadful to me, even than the spirits that tempted me many years ago.
